John McCullough's "Moral Incertitude."

CINCINNATI, September 27.—John McCullough's engagement here the past week has received in the papers a discussion as to the mental and physical condition of the eminent tragedian. He has been enacting the role of Virginia throughout the entire week. On Wednesday night he presented the part in a manner as to call for the unqualified praise of all the critics. On the other nights there have been lapses of memory and variations in his observance of the stage business that show him to be suffering from a form of moral incertitude, as baffling of diagnosis as it is distressing to himself and friends. The cause is ascribed to too much club life, and one of the morning papers declares that Mr. McCullough would benefit him most, and thereby confer the benefit of his genius longer upon the public, were he to withdraw for a time beyond the reach of the seductions of a public life, both on and off the stage.

New Directors.

NEW YORK, September 27.—The directors of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company, after their adjournment this afternoon, issued the following: The only business of the board of interest was the resignation of Messrs. J. Gould, Sidney Dillon and J. B. Reddick, and the election in their places of W. K. Vanderbilt, Horace Williams and D. P. Kimball, of Boston. The changes are of no significance as to the friendly relations between the company and the parties resigning. Messrs. Kimball and Williams represent the interest of the Erie roads.

Fire Hotel Burned.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., September 27.—The Rockingham House, a large hotel and one of the finest in New England, was burned this morning. Nothing but the walls are standing. The flames started near the boiler room and made rapid headway through the building. Fortunately the stairways remained intact and the guests all escaped. Some of the most considerable jewelry and money. The sailors from the United States steamer Pomorie rendered valuable assistance.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., September 27.—An average of fifteen icebergs pass St. John's daily, going south in the track of the ocean steamer. Crafts arriving here report the passing of large quantities of wreckage on the coast of Labrador on Thursday. Severe hurricanes were experienced the same date.

It was shown that no more could be recovered.

Egan Denies in Toto.

LINCOLN, Neb., September 27.—With reference to the rumor of the revolt against Parnell in Mayo, Ireland, as indicated in a special cable, dated September 25th, Patrick Egan, president of the Irish National League of America, denies the statement in toto. The cable letter declared as follows: "Parnell desires the present representatives in Parliament from County Mayo, John O'Connor Power and Rev. Isaac Nelson, to again contest their seats at the next general election, but the disaffected leaguers objected to Parnell's dictation and proposed Captain Boycott and John William Nally for Parliament." "The truth of the matter is," said Egan, "O'Connor Power is a despicable traitor to the national cause, and Nelson was requested by his constituents, who are among the strongest supporters of Parnell, to resign his seat, for the reason that he failed to discharge his duty to the party. Neither of the pair are approved by Mr. Parnell, but on the contrary their withdrawal from Irish politics is desired, and their defeat at the next election is a certainty. To talk of the popular Boycott, who supplied in his name an addition to the dictionary of ominous import to enemies of the people, is absurd. Any candidates approved of by Parnell will be just as certain of election in Mayo at the next vacancy as in any constituency in Ireland."

PARIS, September 27.—A meeting of the French Cabinet was held to-day. Prime Minister Ferry submitted the identical note presented to Nubar Pasha, Egyptian Prime Minister, by the representatives of the Russian, German, Austrian and French governments, protesting against the suspension of the sinking fund.

M. Ferry informed his colleagues that Admiral Courbet had telegraphed that the French preparations for a resumption of warlike preparations against the Chinese were completed.

The Cabinet has resolved to summon the Chambers to meet on October 14th. The government has resolved to retrench its expenditures during the year 1885. The estimates will be cut down 50,000,000 francs.

Makes Another Characteristic Address.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., September 27.—General Butler addressed an audience of 2,000 persons, which filled the City Hall, this evening. Butler first addressed himself to the Republican party, confessing that their first principles were grand and good, for he helped to make them. He said the party had to borrow money at a high rate of interest early in their career, and that the capitalists in self-defense flocked into the party. Once in, they stay in, and the party has thus fostered monopolies and trampled on the workingmen. He passed on to eulogize American industry and the national prosperity and to commiserate the forlorn condition of the laborer. He rehearsed the familiar statistics of the cotton and grain crops, which he picked up on his travels westward, and launched his famous argument: "I am turning out at my mills comes a laborer with a hole in the seat of his trousers." In speaking of his scheme for controlling stock gambling and dealing in futures by law, the General said, "You remember that when I took my seat in the office to which I was elected by your votes, in my inaugural address, I talked about gambling in futures, and wanted the Republican party, always prattling about God and morality and all such things, to take some action on this matter. They took no notice of it. How does this affect you? It affects you in this, in that it destroys your young men. A young man goes into a banking office; he sees those above him speculating and gambling; he draws it out himself. Why, only a few days ago, Armour & Co., of Chicago, made $2,500,000 on the rise in the price of pork. They made it and boasted of it. They stole it. If a miserable creature should steal a pig, we would put him in the house of correction. What shall we do with people who steal $2,500,000 worth of pigs at once?" The General closed with a slap at the Democrats of Massachusetts, who cannot hold a convention, either State or district, without having the ballots considerably outnumbered the delegates. "If they tell you," the speaker said, "that you will throw away your vote casting it with the People's party, tell the Democrats they have been throwing away their votes for twenty years."

MISS WELTON.

Surmises That She was Left to Die by a Coward.

DENVER, Colo., 27.—Later information of the death of Miss Carrie J. Welton who perished in the snow-storm while making the descent of Long's Peak on Tuesday night, has been received. The opinion became general that Miss Welton was deserted by the guide, who did not return to her rescue until the next morning. Mr. Gilbert, the lively man at Estes Park, says that, obedient to Miss Welton's orders, he drove over to the guide's house on Wednesday morning to meet her, on the return from the summit, to drive her back to the Estes Park hotel. On reaching the guide's house he was informed of Miss Welton's death, and that the father and son were on the peak bringing the body down. The lively man drove rapidly up the trail for five miles, where he met the men with the body, which was found only a mile further on. It was then 10 in the morning, six hours from the time the guide says he found the body. Residents of the park discredit the guide's story, and charge him with criminal cowardice and possibly responsible for the lady's death. The coroner will investigate.

A Bold Theft.

NEW YORK, September 27.—To-day an unknown man stole a bar of gold worth $5,000 from the broker's office of Martin Runyon, in the basement of No. 12 Broadway, in the presence of the clerks.

He dashed out of the door, hotly pursued, and ran up the steps leading to the office in the building. Through the office of the fifth floor, he reached the fire escape, descended to the roof of the adjoining building, and got down through the scuttles to Pine street, where he escaped. It appears that a thief visited the law office of Mr. McCormick, through which he escaped, yesterday morning. He pretended to be examining the fire escape and some wires. Leave being given, he descended the fire escape this morning and took the opportunity to open the scuttles in the flat roof to which the escape leads.

"John P." Married.

Habitual constipation is not only one of the most unpleasant, but at the same time one of the most injurious conditions of the human system, and is but a forerunner of disease, unless removed. This is usually accomplished by the use of purgatives, which for the time afford relief but after their immediate effects have passed they leave the system in a worse state than before. To effect a cure it is necessary that the remedy used should be one that not only by its cathartic effect relieves the bowels, but at the same time acts as a tonic, so as to restore the organs to a sound, healthy condition. This "Prickly Ash Bitters" will do. It removes the cause and restores health.

Brief History of the Candidate's Progress.

BUTLER DELIVERS HIMSELF.

More Blaine, and More to Come.

CLEVELAND, September 27.—At about half-past 10 a. m., Blaine went from Mrs. Garfield's house to Kennard, where he remained in his parlor receiving callers until he went to the depot to take the special train to Elyria, at 1 o'clock. On this special trip he was accompanied by Ex-Governor Foster, Hon. Amos Townsend, Mr. Hanna, Judge Foraker, Hon. A. W. Tenny, of Brooklyn, and Hon. W. Bingham, President of the Business Men's Club of Cleveland, and others.

CLEVELAND, September 27.—When the train arrived at Elyria, the pretty little town was crowded with its own citizens and people from the surrounding country. The jam at the depot was so great it was difficult to get to the carriages. A meeting was in progress at the court house square, and about to be addressed by Secretary Windom.

When Blaine got up on the stand the people cheered him repeatedly. He spoke as follows: "Mr. chairman and ladies and gentlemen—This is not my first visit to your beautiful country. I recall, with great pleasure, a previous visit, when I was met as cordially as to-day, and I knew of your country before I had the pleasure of seeing it, for who does not know of the advanced stand and the great leadership which the county of Loraine took in the prolonged anti-slavery struggle. (Cheers.) It was your sturdy citizens and the great institution at Oberlin, that disseminated these principles of freedom, which made this northwestern country the vanguard in the contest with slavery. (Renewed cheering.) That contest ended in victory, and another is now committed to your charge, and to-day, in an emphatic sense, to the leadership of Ohio, and that is, all other questions aside, 'Shall American labor be protected?' (Great cheering.) During the presidency of the anti-slavery struggle, there was no side issue that could divert the anti-slavery men of the western reserve from one of the great absorbing questions, and I believe the same discipline of mind prevails now, and that no side issue will be permitted to divert you from the controlling question of this campaign. ('Good, good,') I thank you, gentlemen, for your reception, and I consider that I have only indicated the subject upon which others will address you, when I bid you a very cordial farewell." (Prolonged cheering.)

Judge Wolsley made a brief speech and was followed by Ex-Secretary Windom and Mr. Tenny. Blaine and party returned to Cleveland, where they arrived at 4 o'clock.

Blaine remained at the Kennard House receiving callers and attending to correspondence until 6 o'clock, when he returned to Mrs. Garfield's. He will spend a quiet Sunday there, going to church in the forenoon, and in the afternoon he will probably visit Garfield's tomb. On Monday he will leave for Toledo and beyond.

DETROIT, September 27.—Blaine will be in Michigan two days, beginning Saturday 14th. The State committee is trying to have the time extended, and have only made a programme for the first day, which includes Detroit, Lansing, Ionia, Grand Haven, Muskegon, Grand Rapids and smaller intermediate points.

Montana Repuba.

HELENA, Montana, September 27.—The Republican convention convened at 12 m. W. F. Sanders was temporary chairman. In the permanent organization Geo. W. Irwin, of Butte, was chairman; vice-presidents, Nelson McCormick, of Butte, and Paul M. McCormick, of Helena. The nominations for Congress were as follows: Third ballot—Andrew T. Burleigh, 9; Alexander C. Botkin, 10; W. W. Alderson, 1; W. F. Sanders, 7; Hiram F. Knowles, 22. At the session in the evening, Henry M. Blake was nominated for District Attorney. After the convention a ratification meeting was held, in which speeches were made by Spear, of Butte, and R. Andrew F. Burleigh, of Miles City. W. W. Alderson, of Bozeman, George W. Irving, of Butte, C. H. Gould, of Miles City, Charles D. Whitehill, of Deer Lodge, Alex. C. Botkin and Wilbur F. Sanders, of Helena.

DIVIDED WE LIVED, UNITED WE DIE.

DALLAS, Tex., September 27.—In the woods, just beyond the corporation limits, the dead bodies of a man and woman were discovered this afternoon, side by side, and still warm. She was about 18, wore diamond brooch and was dressed in exquisite taste. He was a few years her senior. Between them lay a revolver, two chambers empty, and near by was a note, in a clear, bold hand, saying, "As we cannot be united in life, we will be in death. George Faustick and Annie Manler." There is no further clue to their identity.

Still the Celestials.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 27.—The case involving the citizenship of a Chinese boy, born in the United States, and his consequent right to return to this country after a visit to China, was argued to-day in the United States Circuit Court. Judge Field decided that the boy is a citizen. Judge Sawyer dissented in order that the case might be taken to the Supreme Court.

DETERMINED DEVILS.

Cleveland Infested with Dastard Incendiaries.

CLEVELAND, September 27, 1 o'clock.—This afternoon the twelfth incendiary fire occurred in Cleveland within forty-eight hours. It was started in the lumber yard of the Cleveland Saw Mill and Lumber Company, in the heart of the great lumber district on "The Flats." A strong wind carried the flames eastward, through the yard, destroying 1,000,000 feet of lumber and about 50 feet of the trestle of the Conotton Valley railway, cutting off trains from access to the depot. The fire here was checked with a loss of $20,000. About 4 o'clock, a small boy standing near the passenger station of the Conotton Valley railway, observed a man creep stealthily up to the baggage car and passenger coach, standing on the side track. Shortly after, he noticed flames issuing from the rear of the coach, and gave an alarm. The locomotive was backed up and drew the cars into an open space, where they were completely gutted, with a loss of only $2,000, the cars being narrow gauge. The entire department was at the lumber fire, and had the flames from the burning cars reached the depot a large district of densely filled wooden buildings must have been swept bare. Towards 5 o'clock a fire was discovered in the Green Block, St. Clair street, but was extinguished without damage. The kindlings used were two packing boxes saturated with kerosene oil. No arrests. Purdy & O'Neil, one of the largest lumber firms in the city, to-day, received an anonymous letter from Chicago, warning them that their stock would be in sub before Monday morning. The machine works received a similar warning, and both firms have taken precautions accordingly. The excitement is general, and there is hardly a resident of Cleveland but who feels apprehension for the safety of his property.

Senators Going East.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 27.—Senators Dawes, Morgan and Cameron, the sub-committee on Indian affairs, returned East to-day, after investigating the Round Valley reservation. They will stop on their way to investigate the Mission Indians. They refuse to make public the results of their investigation.

Fast Time.

MILWAUKEE, September 27.—To-day, at the Cold Springs Park, Rich Hall paced a mile in 2:13 1/4 and Johnson in 2:10. A strong wind was blowing and the weather was raw. The track was heavy in places. Minnie R. and runner, Milwaukee, made a mile in 2:05 1/4, lowering their record 3/4 second.

LIGHTNING FLASHES.

The Ross-Teamer race, at Point of Pine, was postponed, on account of rough water, until Monday.

General Wolsley and staff have started on their expedition to Khartoum.

The Republicans at Helena, Mont., have nominated Hiram Knowles, of Butte, for Congress.

The freight coming into Utah now is arriving on good time, and in excellent condition. The stocks of the merchants are being filled for the fall and winter trade.

Simple Remedies.

Equal parts of ground mustard and flour made into a paste with warm water, and spread between two pieces of muslin, forms the indispensable mustard plaster.

A hornet's nest which has been deserted by the horretts, bound on the throat with a piece of flannel, will cure the most malignant sore throat.

The fumes of burning coffee are a powerful disinfectant. Pound the coffee in a mortar, and then strew it on a hot iron plate, which, however, must not be red hot.

A pan of sliced raw onions placed in a room where there is diphtheria will absorb the poison and prevent the disease from spreading. The onions should be burned every morning and fresh ones cut up.

A free application of soft soap to a fresh burn almost instantly removes the fire from the flesh. If the injury is very severe, as soon as the pain ceases apply linseed oil and then dust over with fine flour. When this covering dries hard, repeat the oil and flour dressing until a good coating is obtained. When the latter dries allow it to stand until it cracks and fall off, as it will do in a day or two, and a new skin will be found to have formed and where the skin was burned.

Wet tobacco applied to a bee or wasp sting will give instant relief.

Half a teaspoonful of common table salt dissolved in a little cold water, and drunk, will instantly relieve heartburn.
